ABOUT AMERICAN LETTERS PRESS

Established in 2011, American Letters Press is the publisher of work by the award-winning novelist and poet, Richard Grossman. From time to time, the press will publish the work of other outstanding writers of literary fiction and poetry.

For the past two decades Grossman has been concentrating on a trilogy of novels entitled, American Letters, intended to redefine the nature of writing. The trilogy's final installment, Breeze Avenue, a 3,000,000-page work on heaven, will be launched online by alp in its comprehensive digital form in Fall 2013. An abridged 5,000-page version of American Letters, presented as a deluxe, boxed set of five printed volumes will follow. Additionally, 37 individual books from the trilogy, beginning with a new, revised edition of Grossman's 400-poem pastoral, The Animals, will be published by alp between 2011 and 2015.
